01. CAA gives green light for next phase of ZeroAvia's test flights

ZeroAvia has secured a Part 21 permit to fly for a retrofitted Dornier 228 following a successful ground testing campaign. This paves the way for test flights of a 19 seat testbed early this year.

02. NBAA highlights safety focus in FAA's AAM approach

Transparency in the certification process ensures the whole industry is part of the safety equation says NBAA, while applauding the spirit of innovation within the emerging AAM and eVTOL markets.
